I: Parker Mesa Overlook (1525'): Join us for a great workout prior to the HPS Awards Banquet (whether or not you'll be attending). From an elevation of 1,525 feet, Parker Mesa Overlook provides quite a perch over the Santa Monica Mountains and the Pacific Ocean below. We'll be taking a little-used steep ridge from the trailhead to the top; a one-way distance of under 1.5 miles with just under 1500' of elevation gain (and return the same route). This is not third class, but comfort on steep, gnarly, slippery terrain is necessary. But wait, there's more! We'll do it all again for a total of around 6 miles with almost 3000' of elevation gain. I: Butterbredt Pk (5997'), Mayan Pk (6108'): Join us for a hike to one or both of these peaks at the southeast end of the Sierra Nevada. First, we'll hike from Hoffman Summit, where Jawbone Canyon descends into Kelso Valley, enjoying great views of surrounding mountains and canyons, including Butterbredt Canyon and Spring, a prime location for migrating fowl. The area was also a favorite destination of 19th century miners, including Frederick Butterbredt, who found his wife and a small baby hiding in the willows below Whiskey Flat. "Her Indian husband and father had just been killed by the soldiers" in the Indian massacre of 1863. Our appreciation of history and geology will continue with our second peak. To some, mighty Mayan's profile is evocative of a Mexican ziggurat. If the resemblance isn't convincing enough, the steep hike will have you reminiscing of climbs to Chichenitza; fortunately, the soft and quick scree descent shares no similarity to the slow and precarious descent from that pyramid. Totals will be 2.7 miles rt and 1200' gain for Butterbredt; 3

I: Skinner Peak (7120'), Pinyon Peak (6805') - Join us for one or both of these splendid hikes in the Kiavah wilderness. For Skinner, we'll drive up a dirt road and then follow the beautiful Pacific Crest Trail from Bird Spring Pass, the same pass discovered by John C Fremont and Kit Carson when snow blocked their entry through Walker Pass. After a return that includes a fun scree ski descent, we'll drive to Pinyon Peak's trailhead. Beginning with the Jackstraw Trail, we'll weave through woodland, creek and meadow; then, gain the great ridge that will lead us to our second summit. Skinner will be 7 miles round trip, 1800' gain; Pinyon will be 7 mi rt, 2500' gain. Please bring liquids, lugsoles, layers, lunch and hat. Contact peterdoggett@aol.com for trip details. M/I: Five Fingers (5174'), Scodie Mountain (7294') - Join us for one or both hikes; see and feel the transition from the northwest end of the Mojave Desert to the southeast end of the Sierra Nevada. First, ascend the magnificent Five Fingers summit, the end jewel of the Indian Wells Canyon crown, via a mountain lover's steep sandy slope and a chimney climb only for the experienced skilled hiker. After an easy scree ski descent, drive to Walker Pass Campground. Hiking a short section of the Pacific Crest Trail and then leaving it, we'll climb an ample but shady gully; then wind through a pretty pinyon pine forest to the awe inspiring views of our second summit. Five Fingers will be 2 miles round trip and 1600' gain; Scodie will be 7 mi rt and 2300' gain. As this outing is part of a conditioning series for next week's big hike, the pace, though not fast, will be unsuitable for beginners. Please bring liquids, lugsoles, layers, lunch, lamp and hat. Bill Simpson 323-683-0959 simphome@yahoo.com

I: Big Maria Mountains HP (3,381'), Sheep Hole Mountains HP (4,613') – Join us for a mid-winter weekend out in Eastern California as we climb to the high points of the Big Maria Mtns and Sheep Hole Valley Wilderness areas. Both climbs require a strenuous effort, which we'll exert at a moderate pace, and will require comfort on rocky, thorny, steep, and loose class 2 desert terrain. Saturday we'll travel east through canyons and up ridges to scale the western flanks of the Big Maria Mtns where we'll climb to the high point of the range and then make our way along the summit ridge to a false summit (only one foot lower than the real one) that is appropriately named "False Maria". If interest and group energy permit, we'll remain on the summit ridge for another ½ mile or so to climb the intriguingly named "Peak 3296" before heading back to our cars for a day's total of about 5 ¾ miles with 3,000' of gain. Saturday night we'll set up our primitive and dry camp and will enjoy a festive Happy Hour and Potluck under the nearly full moon, winter night sky. Sunday we'll head over to our trailhead for Sheep Hole Mtn, east of 29 Palms, and set out to the east up canyons and ridges over incredibly rugged and rocky (high Class 2) terrain to the high point of the range where we'll enjoy spectacular views before making our way back to the cars the same way we came in. Expect a day's total of about 4 miles with 2,200' of gain. Feel free to join us for one or both days. High clearance vehicles recommended. This is a DPS Outing co-sponsored by WTC and HPS. I: Fox Mountain #1 (5167') - Celebrate the 70th anniversary of the first HPS hike. Although HPS did not officially become a section of the Sierra Club's Angeles Chapter until 1954, the first HPS hike was organized 8 years earlier on March 10, 1946. The idea for the section and list originated with Weldon Heald. In June 1946, he completed hiking 100 of the peaks on his list. Fox #1 was on the 1946 list. Fox is named for Charles Fox, an early Angeles Chapter Chair and once owner of the Santa Barbara Canyon ranch, one of the central parcels that became part of the Los Padres National Forest. I: Sandy Point (7,062'), Last Chance Mountain (8,456') – #Hikethe100 Join us for a late autumn weekend in the Last Chance Mountains way up in northern Death Valley National Park near Scotty's Castle, CA. Both peaks require a strenuous effort, which we'll exert at a moderate pace, and will require comfort on rocky, thorny, steep, and loose class 2 desert terrain. Saturday we'll head south up a long ridge and enjoy fantastic views down into Eureka Valley as well as of the seemingly numberless peaks and ranges that surround us as we make our way to Sandy Point. We'll return the way we came, with a brief diversion to the imaginatively named Peak 6277, for a day's total of about 11.0 RT miles with 2,700' of gain. Saturday night we'll camp out at the primitive and dry Eureka Dunes Campground and enjoy a festive Happy Hour and Potluck under star-packed, new moon night skies. Sunday we'll head up through the Pinyon Pine and Juniper filled slopes of Last Chance Mountain, upon whose summit we'll relish the superb views that can only be found atop P2K peaks. We'll return the way we came in for a day's total of about 5.0 RT miles with 3,000' of gain. Feel free to join us for one or both days. High clearance vehicles recommended. I: San Jacinto Peak (10,804'), Jean Peak (10,670'), Folly Peak (10,480'), Marion Mountain (10,320') & Drury Peak (10,160') - Join us for a moderately-paced overnight backpack to climb 5 HPS peaks in the San Jacinto Wilderness. We will begin on Saturday morning with a ride on the Palm Springs Aerial Tramway. In just 12 minutes, we will ascend from the Sonoran Desert to a beautiful alpine forest. From the tram station (8,516'), we will hike to Miller Peak (10,400') and then San Jacinto Peak (10,804'). Sierra Club founder John Muir once remarked that "The view from San Jacinto is the most sublime spectacle to be found anywhere on this earth!" After soaking in the spectacular views and celebrating our accomplishment, we will hike cross-country to Folly Peak (10,480') before settling into camp at Little Round Valley Campground (Saturday total 7mi, 2,600' gain). On Sunday, we will hike cross-country to Drury Peak (10,160'), Marion Mountain (but not it's 10,320' summit block), Shirley Peak (10,338') and Jean Peak (10,670') before returning to the tram station for our ride down (Sunday total 5mi, 1,600' gain). Quail Mountain is the highest peak in the Park. Mt. Minerva Hoyt was named by the US Board of Geographic Names to honor Minerva Hamilton Hoyt in 2013. She was devoted to preserving the desert plants in the area of Joshua Tree National Park, Death Valley and Anza-Borrego Desert State Park. Saturday we will begin our trip from Hidden Valley Picnic Area and cross-country on the desert floor about 3 miles with around 400' elevation gain to our base camp. Early Sunday morning we will traverse cross-country up to Quail Mountain via Mount Minerva Hoyt. After summiting Quail, we will cross-country back to our base camp, break camp and return to Hidden Valley Picnic Area. Totals for Sunday will be approximately 8 miles with around 1,700' of elevation gain. Please send an email to the leader with your contact information, condition, and experience. I: Split Mountain (6835'), Black Mountain #5 (7438'): Join us for the second day of the HPS Spring Fling. To reach our first summit and its distinctive cleft appearance, we'll go from walking a pretty forested trail to weaving through some brushy terrain; then climb up and around a boulders-manzanita mix to spectacular views of the Kern River Valley and Lake Isabella. After a short drive to our second trailhead, we'll make a relatively short but steep ascent to our second summit amidst the magnificence of a forest verdant with lush ferns and beautiful trees. Join us for one or both peaks. The first peak is 8 miles rt with 2400' gain; high clearance vehicles advised. The second peak is 3 miles rt with 1200' gain. Please bring liquids, lugsoles, layers, lunch and hat. Contact peterdoggett@aol.com for trip information. Leaders Peter & Ignacia Doggett

I: Hildreth Peak (5,065'): Join us for this moderate paced, strenuous 16-mile round trip hike with around 4,700 feet of elevation gain in Santa Barbara area. We'll hike on a route that has both significant trail and significant cross-country from the south up through Agua Caliente Canyon. The hike begins along a gently babbling creek, where we'll travel up through trees before heading up a steep, loose, sometimes very brushy ridge to an old jeep road leading to this peak. It is named after Joel Hildreth, one of the first Forest Rangers in the 1890s to patrol this gorgeous area of California formerly inhabited by the Chumash. For an added bonus we'll get to see the spectacular "miniature Hoover Dam" enroute, a sight often missed by the unknowing. Suitable only for seasoned and well-conditioned hikers. O: Zobeida Arauz Memorial Hike and Potluck - Join us for a celebration of the life of Zobeida Arauz. On Sunday, June 5, there will be a memorial hike for Zobeida Arauz, who passed away on May 21st after a long battle with pancreatic cancer. Join with others who have known and loved to hike with Zobeida. She touched the hearts of many with her smile and her gentle demeanor. Those who knew her admired her dedication -- completing the HPS list eight times (the record for a woman) -- and her bravery for overcoming her fear of heights. Zobeida's friends and family will hike together in the wilderness she loved to the summit of Mt. Hillyer (1.5 miles RT, 300' gain) for a final wilderness salute to her memory. The hike will be followed by a potluck at Bandido Campground. In lieu of flowers, a memorial fund has been set up in Zobeida's name; proceeds will benefit pancreatic cancer research. Follow the link below for additional information. Meet at 9:00 AM at the La Canada rideshare location with all the usual and something to share for the potluck. I: Bobcat Knob (6,709'), Goodykoontz Peak (7,558'), Pallett Mountain (7,760'+) – Join us on this moderately strenuous, relaxed but determined-paced, short backpack trip into the heart of the San Gabriel Mountains for a nice climb of a couple gorgeous peaks on the HPS List. Friday we'll set out in the early afternoon from Buckhorn Campground and head down into Cooper Canyon via the Burkhardt Trail to its intersection with the Pacific Crest Trail where we'll make camp and celebrate with a festive Happy Hour under the nearly full moon lit, pre-summer night skies. Expect a day's total of 1.7 miles with about 160' of gain and 900' of loss. Saturday we'll set out at first light with daypacks first on trail and then head XC up the steep western ridge system of Goodykoontz Pk, picking up Bobcat Knob along our way. From the summit we'll continue north along the ridgeline for a bit before descending a couple hundred feet and then ascending the southern flank of Pallet Mtn to its summit. After thoroughly enjoying the views up top, we'll descend the western ridge to Burkhardt Saddle, and then head south on trail back to camp for a total of 7.3 miles and 3,900' of gain. At camp we'll pack up and head back out the final 1.7 miles and 900' gain needed to get back to our cars. This WTC Experience Trip is co-sponsored by the Hundred Peaks Section. O2: Will Thrall Peak (7,845') & Pleasant View Ridge (7,983') - Hiking the Pleasant View Ridge Wilderness - Celebrate Summer with this epic trek in the San Gabriel Mountains to a couple of the most rugged, challenging, and remote peaks in the area. Usually done as an absolutely epic day hike, we'll extend it this time by backpacking down into the wilderness the afternoon prior and setting up camp beneath the pines to enjoy a gorgeous night beneath the stars. A strenuous day follows, but your effort and perseverance will be returned in kind with equal doses of jaw-dropping beauty, peaceful solitude, and a profound connection with the seemingly-untouched wilderness of the high country. We'll start at Buckhorn Campground (near Waterman Mtn), where we enter the Pleasant View Ridge Wilderness, then head down the Burkhart Trail about 1.4 miles and make camp on the north side of Cooper Canyon Creek -- a good reliable water source under the canopy of abundant pine and oak, and an excellent spot for a festive Happy Hour. Sunday morning, we'll resume our travel along trail into an increasingly stunning part of the San Gabriel Mountains with plenty of healthy stands of trees that have avoided the wild fires and disease that have plagued so many California forests. We'll hike to Burkhart Saddle and turn west; climbing first to Will Thrall Peak, and then to Pleasant View Ridge via steep use trail and occasionally loose slopes. After enjoying the views up top, we'll return to camp via the same route we came in for a total of about 10.5 miles and 3,200' of gain. Once back at camp we'll pack up and head out. Foul weather or excessive heat cancels. This WTC Outing is co-sponsored by HPS. Email contact info, recent experience and conditioning to deniseweintraub@yahoo.com in return for trip status and details. Leader: DENISE WEINTRAUB Co-leader: MAT KELLIHER

I: Mount Dana (13,057'), Peak 12565, Mount Gibbs (12,773') - Join us in Yosemite National Park for this classic loop hike to a couple of spectacular peaks along the Sierra Crest high above Tioga Pass. Expect a strenuous day which we'll do at an unhurried pace; totals for the day will be about 8.5 miles with 5,000' of gain and loss. After setting up a car shuttle at the Park Entrance and at Dana Meadows, we'll start out by ascending the West Slope of Mt Dana on use trail and XC to its summit (2.4 miles, 3,100' gain), then continue XC to the SE first down and then up to the summit of Peak 12565 (1.7 miles, 1,350' loss and 1,100' gain), and then turn to the SW for more XC travel where we'll drop down and then up to the summit of Mt Gibbs (1.1 miles, 450' loss, 650' gain). We'll descend XC off the west ridge of Mt Gibbs through Dana Meadows to our cars. This SPS outing is co-sponsored by WTC and HPS. O: Mountain Bike in Santa Monica Mountains: Join us for a fine mountain bike tour of an interesting portion of the Santa Monica Mountains. This will be a great cross-training opportunity for peak baggers. The entire outing will be on good fire roads at a moderate pace. We'll begin from the trailhead at the end of Westridge Road (near the east end of the Santa Monica Mountains) with a ride to San Vicente Mountain (elev. 1960'). Like Mount Disappointment in the San Gabriel Mountains and White Point on the Palos Verdes Peninsula, San Vicente Mountain was used as a Nike missile defense site during the cold war in the 1950s to detect and intercept Russian missiles directed at Los Angeles. From here we will continue on toward Hub Junction, which is both an intersection of fire roads and a scenic destination. We expect that the total round trip will be about 30 miles with around 3500 feet of elevation gain. However, depending upon the speed of the group, we may not reach Hub Junction (because we are planning to be back at the trailhead by no later than 3 pm). Recommended for experienced mountain bikers only. O: Grays Peak (7920'+) and Gold Mountain (8235') - Hike these two nice peaks north of Big Bear Lake on trail and road. This hike will be done at a SLOW pace to accommodate hikers who need -- or want -- a little more time to hike and enjoy HPS peaks. The Grays Peak trail is one of the most popular hikes in the Big Bear area, and it is well shaded. Gold Mountain is named for a famously large gold discovery in 1873. Total distance will be about 9.5 miles and total elevation gain will be around 2,000 feet. High-clearance vehicle required for Gold Mountain. Please bring water, lugsoles, layers, lunch, sunblock and hat. Contact Leader for details. Leader: BILL SIMPSON Co-Leader: VIRGINIA SIMPSON

O: Smith Mtn (5111') - The pleasure of this outing starts shortly into the drive to the trailhead as the road gradually winds its way through the beautiful green mountains that surround our destination. It continues as we take the pleasant Upper Bear Canyon Trail to Smith Saddle, and then leave it for a use trail up a sometimes steep ridge to the summit. Wonderful views abound, among them Bear Creek's deep canyon, Triplet Rocks, Waterman, Islip, Hawkins, Rattlesnake, Wilson and Baldy. At a pleasant pace, we will cover about 7 miles and 1900' gain. Meet at 9 AM at the public parking lot on the southeast corner of Foothill Blvd and Asuza Ave, 0.9 miles north of the 210 Fwy in Asuza. Please bring liquids, lugsoles, layers, lunch and hat. 2016 HPS Fall Festival - Welcome in the crisp, cool days of autumn with a fun and festive weekend filled with outstanding peak bagging and an evening of partying in the Big Bear Lake area of the San Bernardino National Forest northwest of Fawnskin, CA. Camp with us at the campsites we've reserved at Hanna Flat Campground Saturday night, or stay in one of many motels in the nearby villages of Fawnskin or Big Bear Lake, CA. Wherever you stay, everyone is welcome to join us for a hearty Happy Hour and Potluck Saturday night, along with lots of socializing and serious relaxing around a roaring campfire beneath the waning crescent-lit, starry night sky. Check the HPS website, the Lookout, or the Angeles Chapter Outings website for scheduled Fall Festival hikes, and contact hike leaders directly for information on specific hikes. HPS requests a $5 per person ($10 per family) charge to help defray campground fees. Reservations are on a first come, first served basis, so be sure to email the HPS Programs Committee reservationist at mkelliher746@gmail.com early to assure your spot!

O: Indian Mtn (5790'), Suicide Rock (7528') - Enjoy the multitude and variety of great views accompanying the hikes to these two points west of Idyllwild and San Jacinto Peak, the high point of Riverside County. Both destinations have a connection to Helen Hunt Jackson, author of Ramona. Indian Mountain's name traces back to a Soboba tradition of naming creeks running through their land, possession of which they almost lost until an 1883 report, co-authored by Jackson, contributed to the establishment of the Soboba Indian Reservation. The name of Suicide Rock is linked to efforts to boost late 19th century tourism with the telling of a story that has elements of Ramona and Romeo & Juliet -- an Indian princess and her lover jump to their death, rather than live separated from one another. Join us for one or both hikes. Indian Mtn can be as much as 6 miles round trip and 1300' gain, depending on the availability of high clearance vehicles and whether one drives all the way to the top, partially, or not at all. Suicide Rock will be 6.6 mi rt and 1850' gain. Please bring liquids, lugsoles, layers, lunch and hat. Contact peterdoggett@aol.com for trip details. Leaders Peter & Ignacia Doggett

O2: Will Thrall Peak (7,845') & Pleasant View Ridge (7,983') - Hiking the Pleasant View Ridge Wilderness - Celebrate Autumn with this epic trek in the San Gabriel Mountains to a couple of the most rugged, challenging, and remote peaks in the area. Usually done as an absolutely epic day hike, we'll extend it this time by backpacking down into the wilderness the afternoon prior and setting up camp beneath the pines to enjoy a gorgeous night beneath the stars. A strenuous day follows, but your effort and perseverance will be returned in kind with equal doses of jaw-dropping beauty, peaceful solitude, and a profound connection with the seemingly-untouched wilderness of the high country. We'll start at Buckhorn Campground (near Waterman Mtn), where we enter the Pleasant View Ridge Wilderness, then head down the Burkhart Trail about 1.4 miles and make camp on the north side of Cooper Canyon Creek -- a good reliable water source under the canopy of abundant pine and oak, and an excellent spot for a festive Happy Hour. Sunday morning, we'll resume our travel along trail into an increasingly stunning part of the San Gabriel Mountains with plenty of healthy stands of trees that have avoided the wild fires and disease that have plagued so many California forests. We'll hike to Burkhart Saddle and turn west; climbing first to Will Thrall Peak, and then to Pleasant View Ridge via steep use trail and occasionally loose slopes. After enjoying the views up top, we'll return to camp via the same route we came in for a total of about 10.5 miles and 3,200' of gain. Once back at camp we'll pack up and head out. Foul weather or excessive heat cancels. This WTC Outing is co-sponsored by HPS. I: Quail Mountain (5813') and Mount Minerva Hoyt (5405') - A moderately paced day hike to two special peaks in Joshua Tree National Park. Quail Mountain is the highest peak in the Park. Mt. Minerva Hoyt was named in honor of Minerva Hamilton Hoyt, who was devoted to protecting the desert areas in what became Joshua Tree National Park, Death Valley and Anza-Borrego Desert State Park. Leaving early Saturday morning from Hidden Valley Picnic Area, we will traverse cross-country up to Quail Mountain via Mount Minerva Hoyt. After summiting Quail, we will travel cross-country back to our cars. Total for the day will be approx. 10 miles with about 1800' elevation gain. Bring a summit snack to share. Wilderness Travel Course or similar training is encouraged. This WTC outing is co-sponsored by HPS. I: Galena Peak (9324') - Galena Peak is the high point of the Yucaipa Ridge. Hike this steep, extremely challenging peak via Mill Creek. The total hike is about 8 miles round trip with around 3300 feet of gain. The need to negotiate the "headwall" (Mill Creek Jumpoff) makes this hike not for beginners (or the faint-hearted). The headwall is concave and gets steeper as you climb, and extreme caution is needed to avoid falling rocks. Bring water, lug soles, lunch, snacks, layers, hat & sunblock. I: Mount Baden Powell (9366') via the East Ridge, Big Horn Mine - Join us for a challenging climb up Mount Baden Powell via the fun but rarely climbed East Ridge, nicknamed "Baden Powell the hard way". Starting from Vincent Gap we will visit the historic Big Horn Mine and learn about its colorful past. Then we will make a steep Class 2 scramble, mostly on dirt, 1.5 miles and 2400' up the east ridge to the summit on use trail, returning via the PCT. Very strenuous, moderate pace. Some exposure in places. Experienced hikers only. Bring your best lug soles, lunch, water, and 10 essentials. 7.5 miles rt, 2800' gain. Contact leaders for meeting time and place. On a clear day, one can see as far as Arizona and Mexico; but be sure to keep your eye on the more immediate desert terrain, its loose shale and variety of thorny cacti. A DPS and HPS peak, this Big Rabbit and its very strenuous 24 miles 8000' gain is only for experienced strong pace hikers. CANCELED: I: Scodie Mountain (7294') - Join us for this superb peak in the Sequoia National Forest. Scodie Mountain is the high point of the Scodie Mountains and is part of the Kiavah Wilderness. The Kiavah Wilderness was created by Federal act in 1994, and it is located within parts of the Mojave Desert, the Scodie Mountains and the Southern Sierra Nevada Mountains in Kern County. The hike will be about 7 miles round trip and have around 2300' of elevation gain. A significant portion of the hike involves a steep climb up (and down) a gully on this mostly cross-country approach to this seldom-visited peak. The views from the summit are arguably as good as those from Scodie's oft-climbed neighbor, Owens Peak. Much of hike goes through a beautiful Piñon pine forest. O: Liebre Mountain (5740') -- Join us for a hike to the forested far-north slopes of the San Gabriel Mountains. [NOTE: The driving time to the trailhead from La Canada is just over an hour.] This interesting area is more like the western slopes of the Sierras than the San Gabriel Mountains -- oak grass savannah at the lower elevations instead of chaparral, and digger pine forest at higher elevations. This hike will be at an unhurried pace. The total distance is about 7 miles, and the total elevation gain will be around 1900 feet. Bring hiking boots, lunch, snacks, layers, sunblock and hat. I: Ryan Mountain (5,457') – Join us as we come off the previous night's Holiday Hooplah festivities with a scenic hike to a classic HPS peak in Joshua Tree National Park. Sunday morning we'll hike out directly from our campground at Sheep Pass to climb Ryan Mountain on a moderately strenuous, cross country route at a relatively relaxed pace over rocky and thorny desert terrain. Although we'll keep it to Class 2, we'll be scrambling up and along rocky and bouldery talus; experience and comfort on such terrain is required. On our way up to Ryan we'll pass over "Joshua BM" and then make our way over to "Peak 5238" before reaching the summit. From the summit of Ryan we'll return to Sheep Pass Campground via the Ryan Mtn Trail for a nice loop hike of about 4.25 miles with 1,400' of gain. CANCELLED I: Monument Mountain (4834'), Mastodon Peak (3371')

David Comerzan 909-482-0173 comerzan@verizon.net
Marlen Mertz 571-335-2340 mbmertz@aol.com

I: Monument Mountain (4834'), Mastodon Peak (3371') - Join us for a second day of hiking in the Joshua Tree National Park. These are two separate hikes. Monument is all cross country with a steep unavoidable scramble that leads up the rocky cone to the summit. A high clearance vehicle is required to get to the trail head. Estimate 6 miles round trip, 1600' gain, 4-5 hours of hiking. Mastodon is a much more leisurely hike on trail to this popular spot behind the Cottonwood Springs Visitor Center. Splendid views of the southern Joshua Tree Area. For the hikes, bring food, water, and 10 essentials. This Lower Peaks outing is co-sponsored by HPS. Peter H Doggett 818-840-8748 peterdoggett@aol.com
Ignacia Doggett 818-840-8748 peterdoggett@aol.com

O: Lost Horse Mtn (5313'), Mt Inspiration (5560') - Join us for the second day of the HPS Holiday Hooplah. Do one or both hikes. The first hike goes by Lost Horse Mine which was at one time owned by Johnny Lang and J.D. Ryan. Once very productive and successful, the mine operated between 1894 and 1931; now, its stamp mill is one of the best preserved in a National Park Service unit. After the first hike, we'll drive to the nearby Mt Inspiration trailhead. Located where the lower southern Colorado Desert transitions to the northern higher Mojave Desert, this peak is named for the fabulous and inspirational views from its summit and trail -- San Gorgonio, San Jacinto and the vast JTNP. Day's totals will be 5 miles round trip and 900' gain for Lost Horse; 2 miles rt and 700' gain for Inspiration. Please bring liquids, lugsoles, layers, lunch and hat. I: Eureka Peak (5518') – HOLIDAY HOOPLAH!! JOIN US FOR A WEEKEND OF FUN!! BE AMONG THE FIRST TO HIKE TO A [POTENTIALLY] NEWLY ADDED PEAK TO THE HPS LIST!! Hike with us Sunday and/or Saturday (see separate Saturday posting for Warren Point). On Sunday we will visit Eureka Peak, which at 5518' is the fourth highest peak in Joshua Tree National Park. Travel out and back will be mostly along a moderately strenuous trail system through gorgeous, but rocky and thorny, desert terrain. Also, Eureka Peak may have by now been voted back onto the HPS list following balloting in November to re-add this previously delisted peak. This will be a slow-paced hike, designed to accommodate hikers who need -- or want -- more time to get to an HPS peak. Total distance should be around 10.5 miles, and total gain should be about 1,800 feet. Bring food, water, lugsoles, layers, hat and sunblock. Contact Leader for status and details.
